

A FEW GOOD MEN - MC CAFFY &
MARKINSON

MC CAFFY
Oh! Jesus Christ!!

MARKINSON
You left the door unlocked.

MC CAFFY
You scared the shit out of me.

MARKINSON
Just keep driving.

MC CAFFY
Are you aware that you are under subpoena?

MARKINSON
Yes. I'm also aware that the lives of two Marines are in your hands.
If there was something I could do about that, I would.
But because I can't, all I can do is help you Lieutenant.

MC CAFFY
What do you know?

MARKINSON
I know everything, Lieutenant.

MC CAFFY
Was it a code red?

MARKINSON
Yes.

MC CAFFY
Did Kendrick give the order?

MARKINSON
Yes.

MC CAFFY
Did you witness it?

MARKINSON
I didn't need to.

MC CAFFY
Did you witness it?

MARKINSON

No.

MC CAFFY

They how do you know?

MARKINSON

I know.

MC CAFFY

Then you know shit.

MARKINSON

He was never going to be transfered off that base.

Jesup was going to keep him on the base.
He said he wanted him trained.

MC CAFFY

I've got the transfer orders.
They've got your signature.

MARKINSON

I know.

I signed them the morning you got in Cuba, 5
days after Santiago died.

MC CAFFY

I'm going to get you a deal.
Something with immunity with the procecutor.
It about four days you are going to appear as a witness for the defense, and you are going to tell the court exactly what you told me.
Right now I'm going to check you into a motel.
And we are going to start from the beginning.

MARKINSON

I don't want a deal, and I don't want immunity.
I want you to know that I am proud neither of what I have done, nor of what I am doing.
